

UMSL | Diversity, Equity
& Inclusion
University of Missouri–St. Louis

SPRING 2021
FACULTY & STAFF
DIALOGUE SERIES

FOR INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION

VISIT OUR BLOG.

This series provides an opportunity for faculty and staff to dialogue about highly relevant and less-discussed topics. This series is based on the premise that effective communication is the foundation of any inclusive organization. These conversations will create space for different perspectives, address blind spots, and challenge the status quo.

This series will be led by special guest facilitator, Tabari Coleman. Tabari is a training consultant and social justice advocate known for his thoughtful but direct approach in facilitating dialogue sessions that focus on effective communication and building empathy. With more than 18 years-experience in diversity and inclusion training and social justice work, he brings a wealth of knowledge, passion, and expertise to his work.

Getting out of our own way: Strategies to address counterproductive behaviors in social justice advocacy and engagement.

Thursday, February 18 from 1:00-2:30pm

Click here to register.

How do our routes and roots contribute to inequality and oppression?

Friday, March 5 from 10:00-11:30 am

Click here to register.

Caring for myself, so can I care for others: Self-care strategies to stay present.

Thursday, March 18 from 1:30- 3:00 pm

Click here to register.