

MARCH 15-18, 2016

TAKE PART IN A SERIES OF INTERACTIVE EVENTS DESIGNED FOR STUDENTS, STAFF, AND FACULTY TO CHALLENGE "NORMAL" AND RE-THINK DISABILITY.

LED BY COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES
VISITING SCHOLAR DR. BRENDA BRUEGGEMANN.

TUESDAY, MARCH 15

5-6:30

ART & DISABILITY: FILM SCREENING/DISCUSSION

MSC 313

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16

11:30-12:45

WORKSHOP: DISABILITY &/IN YOUR SYLLABUS

ED COLLABITAT (SOUTH CAMPUS)

5:30-7

PRESENTATION: A TRIANGULATION OF DISABILITY, LITERACY, AND RHETORIC-A JOURNEY TO HARTHEIM AND THE CENTER OF
THE NAZI'S T-4 PROGRAM

MSC CENTURY ROOM C

THURSDAY, MARCH 17

12-1:15

WORKSHOP: DISABILITY &/IN YOUR SYLLABUS

MSC 315

FRIDAY, MARCH 18

2-3:15

DISABILITY DIALOGUE: ACCESS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

ED COLLABITAT (SOUTH CAMPUS)

5:30-7

RE-THINKING HUMAN: MINI-TOUR AT THE CONTEMPORARY ART MUSEUM

3750 WASHINGTON BOULEVARD

EVENTS CO-SPONSORED BY THE COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES,
THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT, & SIGMA TAU DELTA

More Detailed Descriptions of Events Are Below.
*All events are free and open to UMSL faculty, staff, and students.
Some are also open to the public.*

Questions? Accommodation requests? We're happy to help. Contact: Dr. Lauren Obermark-obermarkl@umsl.edu; 314-516-5591

Tuesday, March 15

5-6:30; MSC 313

Art & Disability: Film Screening/Discussion

View and discuss two short documentaries about disability in the art world. Light refreshments provided.

Wednesday, March 16

11:30-12:45; ED Collabiat (South Campus)

Workshop: Disability &/in Your Syllabus

Teachers (or future teachers) of all levels will work toward creating more accessible classes beyond the standard disability statement on a syllabus. Light refreshments provided; feel free to bring your lunch.

5:30-7; MSC Century Room C

Presentation: A Triangulation of Disability, Literacy, and Rhetoric-A Journey to Hartheim and the Center of the Nazi's T-4 Program

A multimedia presentation focused on the experiences of disabled people during the Holocaust. Light refreshments provided. Open to the public.

Thursday, March 17

12-1:15; MSC 315

Workshop: Disability &/in Your Syllabus

Teachers (or future teachers) of all levels will work toward creating more accessible classes beyond the standard disability statement on a syllabus. Light refreshments provided; feel free to bring your lunch.

Friday, March 18

2-3:15; ED Collabiat (South Campus)

Disability Dialogue: Access in Higher Education

Join a guided discussion about the possibilities of access in higher education. Leave with ideas about how to foster a more inclusive university. Especially useful for UMSL staff and faculty. Light refreshments provided.

5:30-7; Contemporary Art Museum, 3750 Washington Boulevard

Re-Thinking Human: Mini-Tour at the Contemporary Art Museum

*Interact with an exhibit at the Contemporary Art Museum to challenge notions of "normal" and "human."
Food and drink will be served. Open to the public.*